Using primarily logical and deductive arguments, it presents its players with a series of questions, which they must try to answer. Each question is prefaced with a caveat, which may affect the answer. If you answer correctly, you advance to the next question, if wrong, the penalty is applied. Depending on the difficulty level, some questions can take several hours to answer. Data is an advanced AI bot for gamers who want real-time multiplayer support for their games. Data has the ability to download all of the characters, items, and worlds you own, automatically, from Steam, a huge portion of the PC gaming community. Your progress and the progress of the people who download Data with you can be viewed in real time. The multiplayer chat is encrypted to ensure your privacy and that you are safe from people that want to abuse your account. Data is easy to setup, simply download, unzip, start it, and play. It runs with almost no resources and will never take advantage of your computer. Data is used commercially and is now very well regarded on Steam, U4GM, and other websites as the best AI bot, and it is cheap. Do not buy anything that does not run smoothly. If you are serious about mastering/playing the game, buy Data. It is definitely worth the money. NOTE: Data can restore characters, items, worlds and all your progress to your original state when you were last playing. This addon has a lot of disabled items and we can't say that all the content are fully usable and they can be ignored. Some of the items are challenging and many of the items can only be bought with 'frozen time' (something that do not exist in the game). Also there are a lot of new items that aren't available in the game, and it is really
