EPO - Enabling People to Overcome EPO - Enabling People to Overcome » Description The European Patent Organisation (EPO) has set up a new office in Amsterdam, in The Netherlands, to support the continuing efforts of the EPO to streamline the granting of patents for and against new and small companies. The new Directorate General for Intellectual Property (EU DG IP) will be composed of up to 180 people. The aim is to ensure that the EPO and its institutions support a 'new start up' policy, as part of its stated goal of providing an incentive for firms to come to the EU for research and innovation. Digital Europe is a non-profit and non-governmental organisation promoting awareness on digital issues in the EU. We provide a forum for discussions and debate on legal, economic, and societal issues impacting digital life in Europe. Digital Europe is associated with the InterDigital European Institutions Association (IEIA), an alliance of associations, companies, and unions founded in January 2013. The mission of IEIA is to represent the interests of Europeans in the digital economy and digital society. Its members have the most varied information and communication services at their disposal. MP3: - Enabling People to Overcome (memedanceduo Remix) » Description This is the official remix of the song Enabling People to Overcome, including new lyrics and also a new music video. The new structure of the EU is in the news lately. It was first reported by Bloomberg and a few days later confirmed by the European Parliament's Research Service (EPS) in its latest quarterly survey. The poll, carried out in the first quarter of 2014, examines EU-level perceptions of the EU's role, the project's achievements, as well as other trends affecting the EU. The Parliament's survey indicates that the transition to a single market will create profound challenges for the bloc's cohesion and governance, with fears rising over potential legal disputes, disputes over turf, and a loss of control over national policies
