The Music Room is a music creation and performance software application for PC, Mac and Apple iOS. The Music Room was designed from ground up to be the most expressive MIDI controller available. It was designed for the HTC Vive. The Music Room runs on any PC equipped with a keyboard, or a USB MIDI controller. It will also work with the iPhone or iPad as long as they have a Bluetooth Keyboard. It will not work without VR hardware, and this is a requirement for The Music Room. It was designed to be more flexible than a keyboard controller, but it is still a performance software application. The Music Room is known for our unique instruments and lighting, which provide a rich atmosphere. The Music Room also includes a fun video game. Music Room songs are recorded as 8-track. A huge library of recorded instruments is included in the game, along with a rich library of presets. Keyboard controls are mapped to our custom virtual performance space. Choose from any of our instruments and explore any of our spaces. In The Music Room, all of our instruments are recorded in VR. We include realistic instrument models, including the most important shapes. The Music Room offers the widest possible range of expressive control. Our 8 dimensions are mapped to our virtual instruments. Strum by any of our 8 dimensions: Slide down strings by bending pitch bend, and move keys and pads up and down for added time and dynamics. Each dimension is assigned a function such as finger, fret, or string. Our 8 dimensions of expressive control are mapped to our virtual instruments. Each dimension can also control anything that accepts MIDI. We mapped all of the instruments to our 8 dimensions of expressive control. Add realistic voicing to your instruments by bringing up your instrument library and choosing a virtual instrument. The Music Room runs on Windows, Mac OS X and iOS. We are working on making a limited edition iPhone case for the The Music Room. Keyboard-Only Controls: Some people may prefer to play The Music Room without VR hardware. Keyboard-only control includes one dimension of expressive control: -Pitch Bend -Slide the strings down to bend pitch. -Rotation -Hold down the keys and the strings bend and rotate in real time. -Pads -Slide the pads up and down to change volume.
