world if you're not willing to solve the problems peacefully." The U.S. leader visited a department store in Beijing, where he bought a tie for his wife and a shirt for himself. Later he announced that on the "productive" trip he had "discussed important regional and bilateral issues of mutual concern to both countries". The State Department said that Trump and Chinese President Xi Jinping would meet at 9:00 pm Pacific time in a telephone conversation to discuss North Korea, trade and "other regional and global issues of mutual concern". North Korea said the shutdown of its nuclear test site "demonstrates its determination to work with President Trump towards its goal of denuclearisation". Trump seemed to take a hit at the news, tweeting, "North Korea has agreed to dismantle the test site before next year's Winter Olympics in South Korea. Thank you to China
