Hi i have a table that is generated from an XML and looks like this: `{{list.Id}} {{list.Title}} {{list.City}}` on click event i do this `$scope.changeto = function(list) { console.log(list); }` when i click on the row i get the data returned in console.log. I am trying to change the background color of clicked row but something is not happening. it is returning an array with all the row values, where I want to change the background only on the clicked one. here is what I tried: `function changeto(li){ console.log(li) $(li).css('background-color', '#FF0000'); }` A: You are clicking on an element, try this: `$scope.changeto = function(list) { list.style.backgroundColor = '#FF0000'; }` If you want to assign to td elements that you are looping over, you can do: `c6a93da74d`
