
Lutron Homeworks Qs Programming Software

After the App is installed, it will display a list of the Homeworks compatible products on your screen. Press the Homeworks button on the device to open the configuration software. Lutron and Homeworks encourage the use of the App. The Advantech TM-SC100 is a very powerful, Internet connected computer platform that can also be used as a standalone computer. It was designed specifically for the Lutron QS system. In this role, it will serve as a hub for control of Homeworks devices. The TM-SC100 is housed in a sturdy case that can withstand a direct drop from 2.5 feet without damage. Lutron customers, including commercial, professional and consumer customers, including real estate companies, government agencies, and residential property managers, utilize our products and support in the building and selling of homes. Our products are designed to delight consumers and service professionals alike. Browse through our product catalog and website. Setup fee does not include POS panel or HVAC panel installation, and should be submitted with your quote. Installation expenses are typically 15% or less of total project cost. Scheduling fee of 10% of Lutron direct sales revenue from July 1, 2020 to October 31, 2020 applies to all Lutron dealers. Additional fees apply if you purchase from (and pay sales tax to) a retailer. Product replacements and service costs are yours to cover. The most common types of service "issues" you might find are: lack of power, nonfunctioning product, and all types of environmental conditions. Lutron periodically inspects all products to ensure proper functionality and replace defective products.

Lutron Homeworks Qs Programming Software

I am a college student and have a Homeworks 4 series/Illumination for lights and shades. The system is not working, probably because the program was lost. The company worked on this already out of business. Is it possible use the code above to get my system reprogrammed What information I can read to have a better idea about the Lutron Homeworks system and programming (I am a software engineering and hope this is doable myself. With help and direction, I may be able modify the code if needed). Thanks in advance for your help! You have come to the right place. The Lutron LCI has more than 40 years of experience in on-site, instructor-led training. Hands-on, in-classroom learning is available at our U.S. locations. Or attend a live, virtual training when travel is a challenge. Once you create your free, LCI account, it is easy to explore all your options. The Lutron LCI is an instructor-led, on-site technical training solution. One of our campuses holds up to two classes at one time. This training model is a great option when a live, in-classroom education is the best solution. With this option, all aspects of your initial Lutron training receive the same quality of learning as classroom training. This is especially useful when travel is a challenge.
